AboutUs

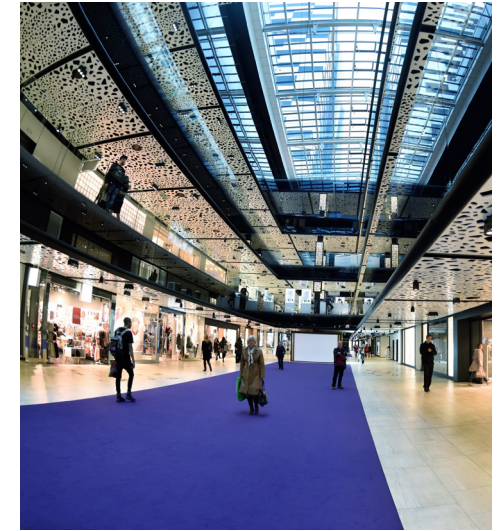

SONIC has a unique position in the design space since 2022 , offering a comprehensive suite of services that encompasses various aspects of event and interior design. With the right marketing and a focus on innovation, SONIC can establish itself as a go-to design studio for clients looking for impactful design solutions.

Mission

To create memorable and immersive experiences through innovative design for exhibitions, events, interior spaces, and promotional giveaways that resonate with audiences worldwide.

Vision

To be a leading design studio renowned for transformative and cutting-edge design solutions that elevate brands and engage customers across the globe.

Our Services

「We offer four main services」

Exhibition Design

Crafting visually stunning and interactive exhibition spaces for trade shows, art exhibitions, and corporate events. This includes layout design, graphical elements, lighting, and immersive technology integration.

Event Design

Planning and executing various types of events—corporate gatherings, weddings, product launches, and festivals. This involves themes, decorations, seating arrangements, and logistics management.

Giveaways

Designing and producing unique and effective promotional giveaway items that enhance brand visibility and client loyalty. This could involve custom swag, or eco-friendly giveaways.

Interior Design

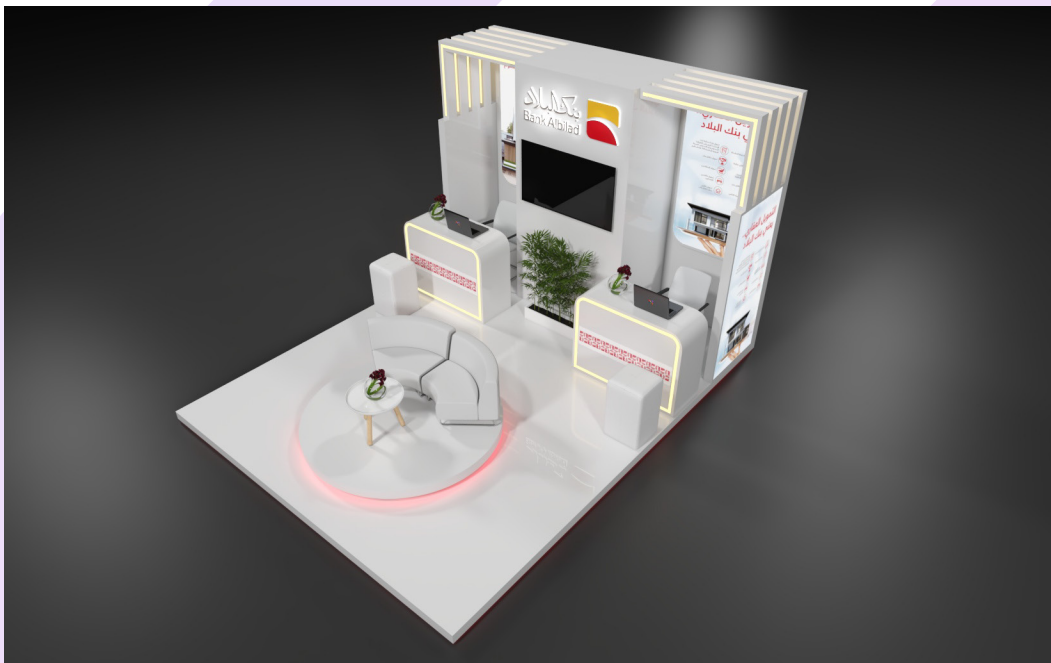

Transforming spaces into aesthetically pleasing and functional environments, whether for commercial properties, retail spaces, or private residences. This includes space planning, color selection, furniture sourcing, and décor.

WHY SONIC?

- A commitment to creativity and innovation in every project.
- A holistic approach that combines aesthetics with functionality, ensuring that every design element serves a purpose.
- Focus on sustainability, offering eco-friendly solutions in materials and practices whenever possible.
- Strong project management skills that enhance client satisfaction through timely delivery and budget adherence.
